

March 7, 2018

Location: Goodwill Industries, 255 Horton Street, London ON, N6B 1L1

3rd floor Community Hall

- Who offers adult education for immigrants in London?
- How can immigrants find out which program is the best fit for them?
- What do immigrants need to learn successfully?

Join us for this FREE event to learn more about the educational programs available for immigrants in the London region. We'll explore educational needs by looking at the immigration journey as a whole, and talk about the supports that are available to help people achieve their educational goals.

Our goal is to help immigrants gain a clear understanding of the programs that exist to help them with their educational goals. As a community of service providers and educators, we also hope to form a deeper understanding of the challenges and best practices around education for immigrants in London.

Funding for this event is provided by the Government of Ontario

Who is this event for?

- Immigrants who are unsure what their next educational next step might be
- Immigrants looking for educational programs to help them achieve specific goals
- Immigrants who have participated in adult education in London and would like to share their stories to help others
- Educators who offer programs for immigrants in the London area
- Service providers who help immigrants settle into and thrive within their new community

What will we do at the event?

“Learning Together” offers a morning and afternoon session, both of which will include a group discussion, networking and conversation, and an opportunity to visit display booths to learn about community services and educational programs. Over lunch, we will hear from an inspiring keynote speaker. We invite you to attend one or both of the sessions, and to have lunch with us.
