

LEARNING TOGETHER

Thursday, March 8, 2018 10 am – 3 pm

Goodwill Community Hall (255 Horton Street, 3rd floor, London ON)

Who should attend?

- People in the London area, originally from another country, who want to continue their education
- People who deliver learning programs and services for newcomers and immigrants in the London area

This event will have two objectives:

- 1) To provide information and options for potential students who want to take their next step towards learning
- 2) To increase the understanding of those who work in the adult education system about newcomer and immigrant learning needs

More details to follow. Contact amcurtin@bellnet.ca if you'd like to be put on our invitation list.

Funding for this event is provided by the Government of Ontario.
